having passed a law thoroughly revising the tax system of the State, so that all property will be henceforth taxed at its real value, thereby increasing the basis from $135,000,000 to over $450,000,000. This is a most excellent change, and places the ability of the State beyond all doubt. It will furnish ample means both for payments of interest, and for the final liquidation of the State debt.

Patent Medicines.

EAs my cough was so very bad, and my paramonary ansease fast increasing, a frend recommended SCHENCK'S PUL-MONIC SYRUP for that disease, and after using it some time I found it was the only remedy that I ever used that had the least beneficial effect upon me. It releved me of my cough, pains and fever, stopped my night-sweats, and strengthened my whole system. After using the Syrup for acush, pairs and fever, stopped my organized acusts pairs and fever, stopped my organized acust of the constraint of the markable scars ever viewed upon any human being.

This ninh day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and forty-six, before me the subscriber, Mayor of said city, personally came John Carr, who, being duly sworn, according to law, doth decose and say, that the foregoing statement, to which he has subscribed bis name, is correct and true in all its particulars. (Signed) JOHN CARR.

Sworn and subscribed before me on the day and year above written.

The genuine Pulmonic Syrop is prepared exclusively by the proprietor, and is for sale at his principal office, No. 4 Cortiand-st., where persons can receive advice, have either their lungs examined, and obtain pamphlets describing consumption, dyspepsie, and liver complaint, free of charge.

Please bear in mind that P. S. Beskman does not sell my original Genuine Pulmonic Syrup, and to avoid deception, apply for the old established Medicine, at No. 4 Cortiand-st.

The Genuine Preparation.

DR. SWAYNE'S
COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY
CONSUMPTIVES,

R those whose lignags are affected slightly, should take this Syrup without delay, by which they may prevent the fixing of that dire disease fully and firmly. How important then, to avoid it. Never live a day with a cough when this Syrup can be had, and you are nearly certain, with proper care, to avoid destruction by Consumption.

DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

It is a compound of Vegetable remedles; it is called Wild Cherry, because that strile is the basis of the preparation.
It is so combined with other ingredients that the utmost efficlency is given to its good qualities; as a supporter and preserver of the powers and functions of life, it has no equal.
CAUTION.—All preparations of Wild Cherry, except Dr.
Swayne's, are netitions and counteriett, and sprung up years after this valuable remedy had introduced itself into the size chamber; therefore, be not deceived by the many "Balsams" and "Spurious Mixtures," but try the genuine and be cured. Prepared only by Dr. Swayne's, where
